

I can't believe the FCC is even considering a plan to weaken state "no-call" lists, such as the one that exists in Wisconsin. Please, do not take actions that threaten existing no-call legislation. Don't give in to the demands of the telemarketing industry!